

James Bonecrusher Smith became the first college graduate to win the World Boxing Heavyweight Title. He has consistently reached the Top Levels of Network Marketing Companies and is a coveted motivational speaker at their international conferences. Bonecrusher's electrifying presence is attributed to his branded message of the "Championship Mindset" and positive mental attitude. He was inducted into the Carolina's Boxing Hall of Fame in April 2007. When he is not at speaking engagements, he can be found mentoring kids through boxing. He is the Founder and Chairman of the Board, of Champion For Kids Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. His passion is to mentor kids to become champions in the ring and in life. He hosts an Annual Summer Camp and a Scholarship Golf Tournament in Myrtle Beach, SC.
